

The Idea Corral

March 20, 2009, Saskatoon Inn

@SaskInteractive Summit 2009
www.saskinteractive.com

Have a problem that needs solving?
Have a technology that needs a use?
Looking for unexpected connections?
Want to get your idea into action?
Want to connect with diverse ideas?
Want to create your ideal job?
Think - "Wouldn't it be nice if...", "If only..."

This breakout session
FREE
for students (includes breakfast, keynote & lunch)

The Idea Corral will encourage dialogue, generate collective action, work to build local capacity, unleash Saskatchewan's potential, and challenge participation to create our ideal future.
Prepare to share. Plan to act.

Part I - Connectors and Mavens*

* a trusted expert in a particular field, who seeks to pass knowledge on to others presentations from the those who know a lot of people and have the knowledge and experience to help participants find the opportunities and resources that they may require. Participation includes short presentations from:

- SpringboardWest Innovations – Joe Toth
- NSERC – Irene Mikawoz
- MITACS – Deanna Lanoway
- U of S - W.Brett Wilson Centre for Entrepreneurial Excellence – Melissa Strom
- University of Regina - Dr. Sheila Petty

Part II – Initial Collisions - guided by Innovation Strategists & Catalysts, Dr. Bill & Sue Brooks, participants will practice innovative methods to convert ideas into action.

Prepare to share. Plan to act.

Supported by

